4. Thank God for the 100 volunteers who will be repairing 3 homes and the Women's Shelter as part of our, "Christmas in April." Ministry.
5. Pray that everyone who attends Trinity on Sunday will come expecting God to speak directly to them about some spiritual aspect in their life.

8. As they meet tomorrow, ask God to give the Sustaining the Future committee the insight as to the scope of renovations that need to be done to our facilities.
9. Pray for those who will be attending the Celebrate Recovery meeting tomorrow. Ask God to help each of them to overcome their hurt, habit or hang up. Ask God to help those who are leading not to become weary in well doing.
10. Thank God for the way He continues to bless our fellowship through the faithful giving of our membership.

Trinity Mission Requests:

- 1. Chaplain (Captain) Jose and Rachel Rondon are stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. They ask that you pray God would open a door for many in his battalion to hear and understand the gospel of Jesus Christ.
- 2. Pray for those who are preparing to take a mission trip to Africa on April 27th - May 6th. Ask God to use them as a light for the gospel message as they construct 8 churches. Ask God to honor the teaching time of our pastor as he shares leadership principles with a group of 30 national pastors over a 4-day period.
- 3. Pray that our first responders would exercise patience, caution and kindness when they are dealing with the public. Ask God to help them cast a positive shadow around the Lake Area.
- 4. Pray that the many people in southern Taiwan who heard the glorious message of Easter will come to believe that Jesus died just for them. May the powerful message of his death and resurrection pierce the hearts and minds of those who heard, resulting in many coming to faith. May God's glory be high and lifted up throughout the land of Taiwan!
