

Wednesday Prayer Requests
January 9, 2019

“When we become too glib in prayer we are most surely talking to ourselves.” (A.W. Tozer)

PRAISE:

1. Thank God for Michele and Mayer who joined our church this past Sunday.
2. Praise God for the way He has financially blessed our church during this past year.

CHURCH REQUESTS:

1. Pray, by name, for the one person you know who is not a Christ-follower. If you haven't already done so, ask God to give you the opportunity to share the gospel with them or invite them to church.
2. As our Pastor prepares and then preaches a message on, “The Commandment For Contentment,” pray that God would anoint the message and honor His word.
3. During this January sermon series on, “Getting Financially Fit” pray that our church family would personally use the biblical principles that are shared over the next 4 weeks or pass them on to those they know who could use some encouragement in this sensitive area of life.
4. As we begin a new year, pray for the diligence of those who have committed to make a fresh start and greater commitment at participating in the worship and activities of Trinity.
5. This Sunday morning Chad Gilbert will be teaching a, “Next Step” class for all new Christ-followers and new members to our church family. Pray as he shares that each person in attendance will catch a glimpse of the importance of being involved in some capacity of ministry.
6. Our “Sustaining The Future” committee will be presenting to our Deacons and Trustees the tentative plans of the renovation of some of our church facilities. Pray as the plan is presented that God will let them see exactly what they need to share.
7. Pray for Jonathan Downs as he takes the lead for the “Unaltered Tour.” This is an area wide emphasis that will take place on January 20th in the Rosa Hart theater. Pray for all of the young students who will be attending as they hear about God's original purpose of love, sex and life.
8. A New Christians Class called, “Now What” is beginning tonight. Pray for those who will be leading and those who will be listening as they study what it means to be a consistent Christ-follower.
9. It would surprise you if you knew how many Baptists really don't know what they believe as Baptists. Pray for Jim Selfridge as he leads the “What We Believe” class beginning on January 20th.

10. Pray for someone to be saved this Sunday. Pray for those who have recently been saved to make their decision public by being scripturally baptized. Pray for someone to join our fellowship this Sunday.

MISSION REQUESTS:

1. Daniel Pruitt is the Chaplain at Fort Riley, Kansas. He and his wife Danielle ask that you pray for a spiritual awakening among the soldiers at Fort Riley.
2. Pray for the new leadership in the Lake Charles Police Department. Ask God to give them discernment in the changes they need to make in the department. Also pray for the officers to respond to their leadership in a positive way.
3. Pray for David & Anne Self, Dick Hyatt & Jerry Seal as they travel to Columbia on Friday to conduct an eye glass/evangelism ministry. Pray that many will come to saving faith in Jesus through this ministry.
4. Many Jews in Israel met believers who celebrated Christmas last month. Many were in believers' homes and heard the story of the birth and life of Jesus. Some even attended worship services out of curiosity. Pray that these Israeli Jewish people will have a softening of heart as they hear what happened in their very own land 2,000 years ago and will receive the One who came for them.
