

Wednesday Prayer Requests
September 11, 2019

"Time spent in prayer will yield more than that given to work. Prayer alone gives work its worth and its success. Prayer opens the way for God Himself to do His work in us and through us. Let our chief work as God's messengers be intercession; in it we secure the presence and power of God to go with us." (Andrew Murray)

PRAISE:

1. Thank the Lord for Annabel, Chase, Dallas and Brady who were baptized and for Joe who joined this past Sunday.
2. Praise God for the exceptional financial giving during the month of August.
3. Send up some hallelujahs for the great day of "Pull Up A Chair"! We had 1310 in attendance in Sunday Morning Bible Study.
4. For the Zambia Construction team's safe return (Todd, Ron, Judd and Wilson). Also pray that all of the work they did in erecting a water tower, and witnessing as they erected the water tower, will literally overflow into the hearts of the people and bring them to Jesus.

PRAY FOR:

1. One person you know who is not a Christ-follower. Thank God for the opportunities that He will give you to share the gospel with them.
2. The "Pull Up A Chair" your choice Sunday Morning Bible Study has begun:
 - God to honor the planning and preparation of those who are teaching one of the 12 different subjects.
 - Pray that there will be a commitment on the part of those who have registered for a class to be consistent in their attendance. (Minimal dropouts)
 - Pray that God will instill a desire in the lives of some to make SMBS part of their Sunday schedule.
 - Praise God for the 45+ people who were first time attenders in SMBS.
3. The Spirit of God to rest upon our Pastor as he begins a new series on Conversing with the Creator.
 - Ask God to help him be biblical and practical as he preaches.
 - Ask God to give him insight on the best ways to encourage us to be prayer warriors.
 - Ask God to raise up at least 50 new Wednesday prayer warriors.
 - Ask God to encourage more people (including our youth) to share Prayers & Praises every Sunday.

4. The architects as they continue to draw up the plans for our remodeling project and for bids to come in lower than they have projected.
 - The staff as they work through the logistics of using a temporary place for worship during the remodeling phase.
 - Our church family would be flexible and patient during this time of inconvenience.
 - The Sustaining the Future Committee as they begin planning and choosing the colors and décor for the East and West Wings and the Central Venue.
5. The Ladies' Fall Bible study in the Book of Daniel, which began last Sunday, and is also meeting this evening. Pray that the ladies who attend will be encouraged to live out their faith with integrity in a self-absorbed society.
6. Trinity Counseling is in need of Assistant Group Leaders for the current Divorce Care semester.
 - Pray that God will provide Ministry-minded people who are understanding, caring and “moved with compassion” to help heal those hurting with a touch of His Grace.
7. Pray for the ReEngage pilot groups this semester.
 - Pray that God will give them strength, courage, insight and vision.
 - Pray that Trinity couples will see the vision and commit to a group this Spring to enhance their marriages.
 - Pray that God will help, heal and restore, making marriage fun again.
8. As always, give God all of the glory for allowing us to see lives changed each week in this place that we call “The Family Place.”

MISSIONS:

1. Steve and Tricia Pierson are church planters in Eagle Mountain, Utah. They ask that we pray that the hearts of their community be attracted by the grace that frees a person from his or her performance-based beliefs. (Mormonism)
2. Pray that God would intervene in the unique problems and circumstances that our first responders face, not only on the job, but in their homes.
3. Pray for Mexican believers working among the migrant farm workers in Mexico as they seek to continue the work in the migrant camps. Pray for their dedication and perseverance, and ask that they will be constantly renewed in their efforts to share the Gospel.
